Emergency War Financing Bill Sent to Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House sent to President Johnson today an emergency bill appropriating $13.1 billion to help pay the rising cost of the war in Viet Nam. By voice vote it accepted a technical Senate amendment to a bill passed last week by the House. The bill's money figure — the exact amount asked by the President — was not in dispute. The amendment would limit Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's authority to transfer funds in support of South Vietnamese and other Allied troops.

Pakistan Reveals Aid From Chinese

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Pakistan, technically a military ally of the United States, disclosed today that it is getting tanks and jet planes from Communist China.

The Pakistani army included five Chinese-made T59 medium tanks in the military hardware it rolled out for a Pakistan Day parade in Rawalpindi, the nation's capital 1,000 miles north of Karachi.

A flyover of modern jet planes included four Chinese-made MIG19 fighters.

It was the first time Pakistan had exhibited any Communist weapons. The bulk of its forces in the past have been equipped with American weapons received under aid agreements stemming from Pakistan's membership in the U.S.-backed Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) and Central Treaty Organization (CENTO).

The money, to be used during the remaining three months of fiscal 1966, will purchase military hardware, support military operations and pay military personnel in Viet Nam.

Included is a $415-million emergency appropriation for economic assistance to South-east Asia and the Dominican Republic. About $275 million of this money is earmarked for South Viet Nam.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, a leading critic of the administration's Southeast Asia policies who voted Tuesday for the multibillion-dollar war money bill, offered a new solution for peace in a speech Tuesday night at the University of Connecticut.

The Arkansas Democrat said peace in Southeast Asia depends far more on a settlement between the United States and China than on who is to participate in a South Vietnamese government and how it is to be formed.

Violent Blizzard Moves Over Plains To Minnesota Area

By The Associated Press

A violent blizzard struck southern Minnesota and the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area with a paralyzing combination of up to 10 inches of snow and winds as strong as 60 miles an hour today. The spring snowstorm forced the closing of hundreds of schools, including the University of Minnesota. Mounting snowdrifts blocked streets and highways, stalling hundreds of cars and forcing cancellation of bus runs. Blinding, wind-whipped snow halted highway snowplows — the crews could not see.

Two storm-connected deaths in Minnesota increased the blizzard's toll to at least eight since it charged out of the Southwest across sections of Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa and the Dakotas. Three were in Nebraska, two in Wyoming and one in South Dakota.

Although its leading edge was racing toward the head of the Great Lakes, the storm still had plenty of force back in Nebraska and Iowa. Omaha got four more inches of snow and Norfolk two more this morning, and many eastern Nebraska areas had as much as 10 inches altogether.

Northwestern Iowa fought drifts as deep as 10 feet. Spencer, a town of 9,000 population, had been without power since 10 p.m. Tuesday night. Travel was limited to emergency vehicles. Hundreds of schools were closed.

Mothers and babies from Spencer's unheated homes were bundled into a downtown YMCA that had heat.

In Omaha, more than 500 persons attending a high school play had to stay the night in the building because of wind and snow. A school bus carrying 29 children, their teacher and the driver was stalled overnight in a snowbank between Loup City and Ord, Neb.

Near Worthington, Minn., 19 motorists took refuge in the transmitter building of a radio station.

Ahead of the storm's main force, snow already was falling. Northwestern Wisconsin reported. See BLIZZARD, pg. 2, col. 6

CSI Gets U.S. Grant For Needy Students

Officials of the College of Southern Idaho received word Wednesday that federal grants totaling $11,050 have been made available to 26 CSI students from low socio-economic families. According to Dr. Donald Keith, dean of students, the funds were applied for in January under the Educational Opportunity Grants Program, which was inaugurated at the college to provide educational opportunities for students who ordinarily would be financially unable to further their education past the high school level.

Postal Fees For Special Mail Raised

An increase in fee charges for special postal services will become effective Saturday, according to Fred Sanger, Twin Falls postmaster.

Sanger said "special" services affected by the fee increases include registered and certified mail, insured and COD mail, and money order fees.

According to Sanger, the only change in registered mail is that the postal department has done away with the $0.00 to $10 bracket, which was 60 cents. The bracket was changed to $0.00 to $10 and the fee is 75 cents. He said any other changes would be in large denominations and would not affect the average sender.

The only change in COD mail is the omission of the $0.00 bracket to $5 bracket, which carried a 50-cent fee. The new bracket is from $0.01 to $10 and will cost the sender 60 cents. Domestic insured mail charges are going to have a 10-cent increase in all brackets from $0.01 to $200.

Former international insured mail fees were not available, but the new cost of service will range from 35 cents for a parcel not in excess of $15 to $2.35 for a parcel of value not exceeding $1,000. The only increase in certified mail will be in addition to postage, which will bring the fee from 20 to 30 cents.

Domestic money order charges will increase five cents in each bracket and international money order fees are $0.01 to $10, 45-cent charge; $10.01 to $50, 65-cent charge, and $50.01 to $100, 75-cent charge.

Sanger said the charges are being increased because of increased costs in handling and shipment of special service mails.

According to Sanger, a limited supply of reprints showed the schedule of fees for these services has been received at the Twin Falls Post Office. Sanger said these schedules will be available upon request, as long as the supply lasts.

Postal Fees For Special Mail Raised

Under the regulations of the program, the college is responsible for working with area high schools to determine student eligibility for the grants, and to interview and screen all applicants.

Basically, students will be eligible if they are a member of a family whose total income is less than $3,200 a year.

According to Dr. Keith, consideration will be given to students whose family income is slightly more than the $3,200 limit, but only if the family has additional dependent children at home, or if there are other extraordinary expenses incurred by the family.

The program comes under the Higher Education Act of 1965 and the college must match, dollar for dollar, the federal monies.

The maximum amount given a student will be $1,000 a year. Dr. Keith added that the average amount granted will be $425 per student and should thus be sufficient to cover student's expenses, the remaining costs could be borne by the student through a National Defense Education Loan.

According to Keith, grant recipients also will be eligible to participate in the Work-Study Program, where students are employed part time by the college.

The college has applied for similar funds for the 1966-67 school year, with a financial base of $78,525. A recent study has shown that approximately 300 students will be graduated from area high schools each year who would be eligible for this type of program.

The College of Southern Idaho is not the only institution in the state receiving such funds. Almost all the other institutions of higher learning have received grants this year under the same program.

Pope, Archbishop Meet for First Time in Five Centuries

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A Pope of the Roman Catholic Church and an Archbishop of Canterbury met officially today for the first time in more than five centuries, voiced hopes for Christian unity and world peace, and embraced. "You rebuild a bridge which for centuries has lain fallen between the Church of Rome and the Church of Canterbury," Pope Paul VI told Dr. Michael Ramsey, primate of the world's 45 million Anglicans. The Pope called the meeting in the Vatican's Sistine Chapel "a great day" in history and said it had meaning "for peace and for promotion of Christian brotherhood among men."

"I have come with the longing in my heart, which I know to be in your heart also, that we may by our meeting together help in the fulfillment of the prayer of our divine Lord that all His disciples may come to unity in the truth," Dr. Ramsey said.

He said he was joining his voice to Pope Paul's to appeal for an end of war in the world.

It was the first official meeting for an end to war in the world.

In their official greetings both the Pope and the archbishop took note of the great differences between the two churches. They made clear they expect no great changes to come immediately.

"But charity can, and must, from now on be exercised between us, and show forth its mysterious and prodigious strength," the Pope said.

"It is my hope, and the hope of Your Holiness, too, that there may be increasing dialogue," Dr. Ramsey said.

The two met in the 16th century chapel where the Pope was elected in June 1963. It was the first time the pontiff had used the chapel to receive a visitor.

There was a deep hush in the chapel, as the 68-year-old pontiff and the 61-year-old archbishop rose from their chairs, turned to each other and embraced.

$340,000 Bond OK'd In Kimberly Voting

KIMBERLY — Property owners in the Kimberly School District succeeded Tuesday night in passing a $340,000 bond issue for school construction and improvement. Similar bond elections and one proposing consolidation with the Hansen School District, had been held in recent years without success. Tuesday's balloting saw 78 per cent of the 515 voters casting ballots in favor of the $34 million proposal. Voters favoring the bond issue numbered 403 and 112 voted against the issue. The funds will be used to construct four rooms at the grade school and to build a new high school. With use of these funds the district will now be able to run six grammar school grades, three junior high grades — in the old high school building, and three senior high school grades.

China Rejects Invitation to Red Congress

TOKYO (AP) — Red China angrily rejected today a Soviet invitation to the Communist party congress in Moscow, charging the Russians slandered the Chinese by sending a letter to other parties "instigating them to join you in opposing China."

Shortly after Radio Peking made the announcement, the Albanian radio said Albania would boycott the congress and accused Soviet leaders of "insolence, big power chauvinism and anti-semitism." Albania is Red China's sole ally in Europe.

Whether Red China would attend the Moscow congress opening next Tuesday had been a question. The terms of the rejection, dated Tuesday, seemed to say that the anti-Chinese letter the Russians sent to Communist parties throughout the world was the main factor in the decision.

The Soviet congress is expected to widen the split between the Soviet Union and Red China, although it is possible nothing will leak out until later. Outside Red China and Albania, most of the world's Communist parties are expected to be represented.

Dispute Is Intensified in Da Nang, Hue

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — New anti-government demonstrations erupted in Da Nang and Hue today, intensifying the political dispute between Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime and the Buddhist leaders. For the first time there were anti-American overtones.

Ten thousand persons milled about the city hall in Hue, the old imperial capital. Some carried banners attacking the United States for supporting Ky's military rule.

However, one knot of demonstrators carried banners saying: "We thank our American friends for helping us fight the Viet Cong."

American and Vietnamese employees at the nearby U.S. Information Service building hastily locked doors and hid equipment as rumors flew that the demonstrators might sack the center.

Two thousand persons attended an anti-government rally in Da Nang amid another general strike that closed most shops in the northern military center.

Checking

WASHINGTON (AP) — Increased use of computers is enabling the Internal Revenue Service to check more income tax returns, catch more errors and levy more additional taxes and penalties than ever before.

This was revealed in the IRS' 1965 annual report, just released.

According to the report, IRS checks the arithmetic on practically all individual tax returns, makes a further study of about 1 in 3 and gives a formal audit to about 1 in 29.

Once your income passes the $30,000 mark, IRS said, a check is likely to be made of your return.

Buhl Woman Wins Idaho Mother Title

BOISE (AP) — A Buhl mother of six, including a veteran of military action in Viet Nam, was announced today as Idaho's Mother of the Year.

Mrs. Imogene Unzicker, the wife of a retired farmer, will represent Idaho in the national competition for the American Mother of the Year in New York City early in May.

Runners-up for the state title were Mrs. Erwin H. Schwiebert of Caldwell, Mrs. Jane Eva Moyes Adamson of Twin Falls, Mrs. Ruth Ethel Beeson of Boise and Mrs. Mary Ann Sweeton of Malad.

Mrs. Unzicker and her husband, John W. Unzicker, are active in the First Christian Church in Buhl and in other community activities. The family moved to Idaho from Nebraska in 1956.

Their oldest son is Lt. Leonard John Unzicker, 27, Navy jet pilot now at McDill Air Force Base in Florida. He has served two tours of duty in Viet Nam.

Their other children are Mrs. Eleanor Etcheverry, 24, Bakersfield, Calif., a school teacher, whose husband, Capt. Louis Etcheverry, is a helicopter pilot in Viet Nam; Mrs. Winifred Irene Terrill, 25, Fullerton, Calif., also a school teacher; Mary Lou Unzicker, 21, a junior at the University of Idaho; Phyllis Elaine Unzicker, 18, a senior at Buhl High School; and Duane Wesley Unzicker, 16, a high school junior.

Two Trucks Pile up at Hansen Span

Two persons escaped injury in an unusual two-truck accident about 9:45 a.m. Wednesday at the north edge of the Hansen Bridge, seven-and-one-half miles east of Twin Falls on State Highway 50.

According to state police, Rex G. Christensen, 25, Hazelton, was driving a GMC truck loaded with 18 head of cattle south and had stopped off the side of the highway to let oncoming traffic cross the bridge.

A Dodge truck driven by Elmer Adkins, 60, Twin Falls, also traveling south on Highway 50, came over a rise and Adkins started to apply the brakes when he saw the other truck had stopped for oncoming traffic on the bridge.

He realized that his brakes had failed and he could either hit the truck, which would be pushed into the lane of oncoming traffic, or hit a concrete abutment which held the guy wires of the bridge.

The truck struck the abutment and guy wires, stopping about five feet up the guy wires and resting against the other truck.

Adkins said the brakes worked earlier, but "they failed when I applied them just after coming over a rise and saw the stopped truck."

The left side of the Dodge, driven by Adkins, was damaged and the stock rack of the other truck was damaged slightly. Investigation is continuing.

Time Bill Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved an amended version of the House passed bill to bring uniformity in Daylight Savings Time.

The bill provides that DST will be observed from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October except in states whose legislatures exempt them from putting clocks one hour ahead.

Atlantic Allies Warned of De Gaulle's Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atlantic allies today warned the President that the United States and 13 allies will stick together to preserve NATO, without France if necessary, Johnson said.

"If our collective effort should falter, then our common defense determination be eroded — the foundation of the alliance's present stability would be shaken."

Johnson never mentioned De Gaulle by name in his first public response by him since the French president served notice three weeks ago that he intends to pull his military forces out of NATO, oust NATO military headquarters from France and relieves control of U.S. and Allied NATO bases in France.

Johnson spoke at the State Department to an audience of Foreign Service officers. Twenty-four hours earlier he had sent a personal message to De Gaulle, responding to an earlier letter from De Gaulle setting forth De Gaulle's policies on the future of NATO.

The split between Johnson and De Gaulle on the NATO issue is complete. De Gaulle wants to dismantle the NATO military system and preserve only the Atlantic Alliance pledge of 15 allies to help each other in case of attack. Johnson said the military system is an essential part of deterring aggression.

Johnson said NATO reform should be accomplished by the allies working together, seeking to improve rather than to dismantle the defense system.

"Consultation, not isolation, is the route to reform," he said. "It was evident his reference to 'isolation' was meant to apply to De Gaulle."

The chief executive said at the outset that "we do not believe there is any righteousness in standing pat" on NATO.

He added: "If any organization is alive and vital — if it is to have meaning for all time as well as for any particular time — it must grow and respond and yield to change."

Then, in what amounted to a rather mildly phrased lecture to De Gaulle, Johnson asserted:

"Of course NATO should adapt to the changing needs of the times. But we believe, just as firmly, that such change must be wrought by the member nations working with one another within the alliance. Consultation, not isolation, is the route to reform."

Death Takes Ex-Mayor, H. L. Harpster

BURLEY — Harry L. Harpster, 76, former Burley mayor and longtime baker here, died Tuesday at Cassia Memorial Hospital of a long illness.

He was born Feb. 11, 1890, at Wymore, Neb. At an early age he went to work in a bakery and at 17 was foreman of the night shift. He was involved in an accident at the bakery in which his foot was mangled and his leg had to be amputated.

Later he became a salesman for artificial limbs before returning to the bakery business. In 1915 he married Ruth E. Warner at Roca, Neb., where he owned a small bakery. In 1919 they moved to Burley and he established the Harpster Bakery, which is still in operation.

Grange Aide Addresses Area Meet

JEROME — Social and economic impact of the Grange movement was described by J. J. Brake, Lansing, Mich., national Grange lecturer, Tuesday night at a meeting in the Jerome Moose Hall.

Formerly master of the Michigan State Grange, Brake pointed out a balance must be maintained between government and the responsibility of citizens of a community. Brake urged local Grangers to use the Grange "Community Progress Program" to unite local areas in assuming such responsibilities.

The Grange movement, beginning in the 1870's, established the concept of the right and duty to regulate those who would exploit others," the official declared.

He noted a major problem today is recognizing human rights without ignoring property rights. He challenged Grangers to seek understanding of, and solutions to, such problems as "Food for Freedom," adequate water supplies, international trade and foreign policy.

Grangers attended from Minidoka, Cassia, Gooding, Jerome, Twin Falls, Lincoln, Blaine and Elmore Counties. The North Side Pomona Grange was host.

Mrs. Terry Sullivan, Twin Falls, sang solos, and Mrs. Anita Standoff, Bliss, played accordion numbers. State Grange officers attending were Mrs. Kenneth Poe, Twin Falls, state Flora; Mrs. Edward Schwaegler, Burley, state Grange home economics director, and Mrs. Ira Kessler, Gooding, state Grange lecturer.

Program on Remedial Class Given

SHOSHONE — A program on remedial reading was given at the Monday night PTA meeting at the Lincoln school auditorium by Mrs. Joe Broyles, instructor for the elementary school here.

She told why the program is necessary and explained how it is taught. She displayed books and materials used, stating the idea is to get children to want to read and to teach them some of the skills of reading.

Students are allowed to progress as rapidly as they are able under the program. Classes are held for students in the fourth-sixth grades.

During the business meeting, conducted by Waldo Faught, president, announcement was made that the April meeting will feature a program on new math and an opera will be presented by the fourth-sixth grades at the May meeting.

Refreshments were served by room representatives from the second grade.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
Clear skies are being reported across the valleys of southern Idaho this forenoon as high pressure aloft continues to settle into the Intermountain Region. Winds are exceeding 10 miles per hour in some southeastern valleys. Morning temperatures are rising quite rapidly with a fine spring day in prospect for today.

This trend towards fair and warmer weather is forecast to continue for the next two or three days at least. High pressure aloft has become quite strong over the Western States, and weaker storms from the Pacific will pass to the north through Canada. An increase in higher cloudiness will occur on Thursday as the first of these weaker storms moves into Canada. However, the per cent of possible sunshine will remain high and warmer air aloft will settle into the lower layers causing a continued rise in temperatures.

Farm activities should be on the increase the next few days as spring weather returns. Warming of the soil by increased sunshine and warmer air will permit field work and ditch cleaning to increase. Orchard spraying will have favorable weather to resume operations during the next few days.

Maximum temperatures today will range in the 40s and 50s and move into the upper 40s to lower 60s on Thursday. Minimum temperatures tonight will be on the cool side again with readings expected in the teens in extreme eastern valleys to the 20s elsewhere.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST

High pressure aloft returning to the Western States is expected to influence the weather over these valleys through the next five days.

Temperatures over the valleys of southern Idaho will average from two to eight degrees above normal Thursday through Monday. A warming trend will continue into the weekend with small day-to-day changes into the first of the week. Some normal maximum and minimum temperatures for this period are Gooding 52-58, Twin Falls 52-58 and Burley 52-58.

Storm systems moving in from the Pacific during the next few days should not be strong enough to break down the protection afforded by the high pressure. Thursday and again around Sunday are days when these weak storms will move to the north. Some increase in higher cloudiness is expected at that time, but little or no precipitation is forecast for the valleys of southern Idaho through Monday.

Sunshine will average more than 60 per cent of possible with daytime cloudiness averaging less than 4 of the sky covered. Wind speeds will be lighter under the influence of persistent high pressure, but afternoon winds may exceed 10 miles per hour at times. Average temperatures at the three- to four-inch depth will show from 6 to 12 degrees warming in most valleys the next few days.

TEMPERATURE AND PRECIPITATION

Highest temperature Tuesday, lowest temperature last 12 hours, precipitation for 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. CST.

Time-Consuming

In announcing his decision to withdraw from the Idaho Legislature, Sen. George Blick wisely asserted, "I've been in there for quite some time and maybe we need some new, younger blood now." It could be considered an invitation to others to seek political office, yet the invitation will have its limitations because of the time requirements of legislative service. Perhaps legislators don't have to spend much time on matters pertaining to state business while the Legislature isn't in session. But the biennial meetings are a different matter.

Those who would serve their fellow citizens in the Idaho Legislature must be in a position to devote their full time to the task for 60 days every two years. That means a legislator must be able to leave his office or job during January and February, plus part of March, every two years. Perhaps the requirement almost eliminates the working man, although it would be hoped that any employer would rise to the occasion, not only permitting the absence, but also working out some arrangement for continued pay.

Although the legislative pay of $10 a day plus $25 daily for expenses might seem quite magnanimous, it's a rare legislator who does more than break even. Many of the legislators take their wives to Boise with them and that $25 a day disappears in a hurry when paying for lodging and meals for two persons. Moreover, when the Legislature isn't in session, every legislator is expected to attend various meetings and sessions and there's no appropriation for such expenses, including travel.

Mr. Blick or any other citizen who ever served in the Legislature is well aware of the requirements on a person's time. If there is any special prestige connected with being a state senator or representative, that's about the only compensation. Perhaps there are times when individual citizens are unhappy with the efforts of legislators; that's only human. Yet when they retire from office, no one should hesitate about thanking them for their time and efforts on behalf of all citizens. Remember, the job is not known for its pay, it's a thankless task and it makes some unusual demands on a person's time.

No citizen should hesitate to thank Mr. Blick for his efforts on behalf of everyone during his several terms of office. Idahoans should make a point of thanking their veteran legislators, regardless of any past differences or political affiliation. It's little enough to ask.

BELETED ARRIVAL

AFL-CIO President George Meany caught up with the rank and file when he declared, "We can't buy either party." In effect, Mr. Meany was ending a long association between organized labor and the Democratic Party. The reason for his change of heart right now is perfectly clear. Leaders of organized labor feel they have been sold down the river in their attempts to repeal the so-called right-to-work provision of the Taft-Hartley Act. The leaders threw their support to Lyndon B. Johnson in 1964 with the understanding they would get some powerful support for their position. What happened was only token action.

No one should assume the Republican Party will benefit from some sort of "backlash" in the wake of Mr. Meany's talk. Neither should anyone assume labor leaders will be any more influential in elections than they have been in the past. They will continue to be in exactly the same position, one of recommending stands to members, but without any means of dictating how individuals should vote in any election.

In effect, the leaders of organized labor have arrived, somewhat belatedly, at the same position as rank-and-file members. Labor leaders made an all-out effort to defeat Robert A. Taft in the wake of the passage of the Taft-Hartley Act. Thousands of dollars and considerable union talent were devoted to the task. Rank-and-file members of the unions didn't buy the stand of their leaders and re-elected Mr. Taft. Results of the election told leaders that members were quite happy with Mr. Taft in office, or at least they thought he was doing a better job than they could reasonably expect from his opponent.

There is no better criterion in electing candidates to office than personal qualifications. Idaho has a good illustration in Gov. Robert E. Smylie. Issues to the contrary, Mr. Smylie has been the best qualified candidate and continues to be considerably better qualified for the office than anyone in sight now, regardless of party. It's quite significant that the best reason advanced so far against Mr. Smylie is that "it's time for a change." It's no reason to elect anyone, of course.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., has put the case of General Motors Corp. versus author Ralph Nader in proper perspective. It is, says Ribicoff, a question of whether a witness may testify before a committee of Congress without fear of character assassination or intimidation.
Hearings on General Motors' investigation of Nader, a critic of automobile safety, were scheduled to open Monday before Ribicoff's Judiciary Subcommittee, and it is to be hoped witnesses will stick to the point of the protection of the witnesses. Hopefully, even an outfit as big as General Motors should be called to account if it has attempted to harass a citizen testifying on matters affecting the commonweal. Big Money is still too important in the affairs of the Republic, but presumably the situation is better than it was in Andy Carnegie's day.

PRIVATE EYES ON TRAIL — Nader's experience is of the sort to give pause to any citizen asked to state his opinion before a congressional committee on any issue affecting Big Business. An author and former staffer on a Senate committee investigating auto safety, Nader has charged that auto manufacturers sacrifice safety for styling and profits, and has described the 1960 through 1963 models of General Motors Corvair as "hazardous vehicles" with dangerous "rear-end breakaway tendencies."
In reply, General Motors hired private detectives to spy on Nader's background. GM first denied any connection with such tactics but later admitted it was making a "routine" investigation to determine if Nader represented clients or lawyers involved in lawsuits against GM.
How now, GM? According to Nader, the private eyes went about asking assorted citizens whether Nader had a normal sex life, whether he was anti-Semitic, and whether he belonged to any left-wing political groups. It has not yet been explained how the answers to such questions would have any bearing on either Nader's competence as a critic of car safety or his right to speak for anybody suing GM. Nader, of course, has denied any connection with these law suits.

WOMEN, TOO — Under what we are pleased to describe, perhaps too snugly as the American system, Nader could be an outrageous pervert, a wifebeater, a dope-pusher and a bomb-carrying Marxist, and still retain the right to aim a kick at the fender of a super-charged horseless carriage and say it was a mechanical bum. And if he were all these things, it would not necessarily prove that he was running errands for some Corvair buyer with a grudge against GM.
I am particularly intrigued, in a sick making way, by Nader's allegation that these snoopers even tried to lure him into romantic adventures. Nader claims he was solicited by a brunette in a drugstore last Feb. 20, and three days later was approached by a blonde in a supermarket who asked him to come to her apartment to help her move some furniture.

RISKED BLACKMAIL — This is not amusing. Had Nader succumbed to the presumed charms of these lower-case ladies, his enjoyment of their talents would not have disqualified him as a congressional witness on GM hydraulic systems, but somebody might have tried to blackmail him out of giving further testimony. A dirty mind is not required to figure that one out.
Some company spy, I suppose, will discover that I am owned by a 1963 Corvair in need of a good laundering, but I can drop dead. In all my years of venturing into the combustion engine, this Corvair is the only vehicle that has never caused me any trouble. But I remain on the side of the customer who exercises his constitutional, and purchaser's, right to call a lemon a lemon.

Views of Others

"COOL, CLEAR WATER"
From the Hudson to the Volga from Lake Michigan to Lake Constance, the was against water pollution is gathering strength. And high time. A spokesman for the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare estimates that to clean up the Great Lakes alone will cost in the neighborhood of $20 billion.

Industrial and municipal pollution in Lake Erie has reached a more critical stage than in any other of the Great Lakes. Its waters are subject to federal enforcement under the Water Pollution Control Act. Cooperating with the federal government, the five pollution-contributing states are each in the process of drawing up a schedule of pollution abatement.

In the meantime the federal Water Pollution Control Administration has achieved a victory on Lake Michigan by comparing with Commodore Oliver H. Perry's on Lake Erie. All industries in the great industrial Calumet region of Illinois and Indiana have agreed to clean waste water before discharging it into the lake. This will cost the giant steel, chemical, and petroleum plants $100 million during the next three years. As a result, biological improvements in the lake can be expected within 30 or 40 years.

Water pollution is by no means just an American problem. The Russians are as concerned by pollution of the waters of the Volga as New Yorkers are by the foul state of the Hudson. Switzerland, Germany, and Austria are rightly alarmed by rapid deterioration of water quality in Lake Constance. The three nations have worked out antipollution recommendations. But there remains urgent need to develop machinery to enforce the agreement.

The whole world must now pay for men's tortoiselike movement toward a responsible approach to their environment. The wanton abuse of resources, together with lack of foresight and resolve, resulting in failure to take necessary preventive measures, means we must now run like the hare to repair the damage done. The cure won't be cheap and it won't be easy. But further delay in tackling this man-made desecration is unthinkable. — Christian Science Monitor.

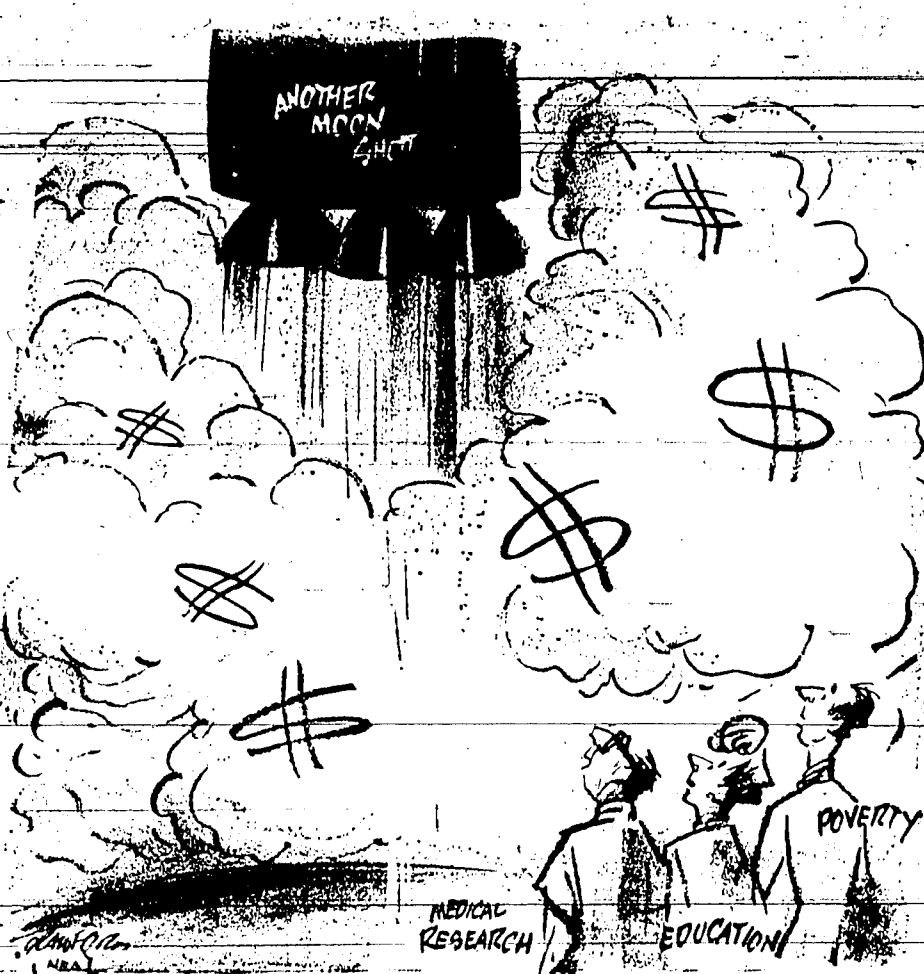

MALE MINORITY

The U. S. Census Bureau published some mid-decade statistics the other day revealing an ominous trend in the division between the sexes. Back in 1960, the Census counted 2,019,000 more females than males in the United States. The new estimates are that the female majority has increased to 3,600,000 in less than six years and is still rising.

The girl in search of a husband need not worry about a surplus of competition. In the most marriageable ages, men continue to outnumber women. But women, as a rule, live longer, and thus dominate in numbers.

The swift pace of the growth of the female majority is, however, something for the long-dominant male to think about. As he knows from reading the financial pages, the wives and mothers hold most of the nation's wealth. There could come a time when the man who now supports the doctrine of "one man, one vote," will think that's not enough — for a man, that is. — The Oregonian.

"Happy Landing!"

POT SHOTS

SURE CAN'T!

Pot Shots:
Thought that was an interesting little story the other day about the new traffic pattern at Five Points North.

I was particularly interested in the instructions for westbound traffic coming down Addison Avenue East. The story noted, "Barnett said motorists near the center line cannot turn right onto Blue Lakes Boulevard." That's quite right. Anyone who tries turning right will find himself on Blue Lakes NORTH. If you're looking for Blue Lakes, it involves a LEFT turn.

These Johnny-come-latelies sure do foul up our street designations!

Interpreting The News

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the Western world there could hardly be two men more different than President Johnson and French President Charles de Gaulle. Each has a strong will. How they use it makes the difference.

Johnson is a symbol of soothing syrup. De Gaulle of sandpaper. Johnson's idea of getting people to go along with him is persuasion of one kind or another. De Gaulle's is to belt them with a mallet.

The President was the greatest Senate majority leader in this century because, in a chamber full of independent and temperamental spirits, he was able to accomplish so much.

He persuaded, cajoled, and favored, persisted, kept his voice down. The Frenchman would have been a disaster in Johnson's Senate job since he seems to regard himself as the man on the mountain giving orders on stone tablets.

When the French faced chaos in the 1950s, the need for a strong man to keep the country together was only one of the reasons for calling De Gaulle from retirement.

There was this one, too: in his lifetime he had become a legend representing the spirit of France, its refusal to be crushed, and perhaps a bridge between a golden past and a possible golden future.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M. D.

Your very life depends on your lymphatic system, yet this system has until recently been poorly understood. The system of lymph, the lymphatic vessels and the lymph nodes.

Lymph is a clear fluid closely resembling sea water except when it is a milky solution—the result of absorbing fats from the digestive tract. Lymph, found in the small spaces between cells, literally bathes every living cell in the body.

The lymph vessels are fragile and almost invisible even under a microscope. This explains why a study of them has been so long delayed.

Unlike the blood stream, which sends blood to and from the heart, the lymphatics carry the lymph in only one direction—to the heart. This flow is very sluggish and depends on squeezing pressures from outside the vessels. Tiny valves prevent a backward flow.

Methods of studying the lymphatic system include the use of dyes and radioactive isotopes. These studies are still in their infancy. We have, however, learned that the materials needed to nourish individual cells—minerals, amino acids, sugars, fatty acids, vitamins and hormones—leak out of the capillary blood vessels into the intercellular lymph spaces where they are taken up by the cells.

At the same time, cell wastes are discharged into the lymph stream and eventually reach the general circulation. From there they are carried to the various organs of elimination—skin, lungs and kidneys.

The lymph nodes act as filters to prevent the spread of disease germs and cancer cells throughout the body. In the process they may become enlarged, tender and even break down if the onslaught is too great. On the whole, however, they do a fine job of warding off infections agents until other products of the lymphatic system—antibodies and white blood cells—have time to take on the task.

When fats are transformed into fatty acids in your intestines, these acids are taken up by the lymphatics because in too great a concentration they would destroy your red blood cells. The fatty acids are then gradually deposited in your blood stream at a rate your blood can tolerate.

When your capillaries ooze fluid into your lymphatic system faster than your lymph vessels can carry it away, waterlogging or edema occurs. This may be a result of disease or may even occur in your feet and ankles when you have sat or stood for a long time without moving your toes and leg muscles. When this happens your ever-faithful lymphatics need help.

Q—I read recently that the Food and Drug Administration is clamping down on non-prescription iron preparations, including all vitamin pills that contain iron? What harmful effects could be caused by taking iron tablets daily?

A—Iron compounds should be given only for the treatment of anemias that are due to iron deficiency. They should be avoided by persons with hemolytic (blood-destroying) anemia, hemochromatosis (overloading of iron in the tissues) and hemochromatosis (bronze diabetes). Anything, no matter how vital, can be poison if you get too much of it.

TAYLOR'S VIEWS ON WORLD NEWS

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

America's leading lawyers are doing yeomanly work in a vital job. We owe our thanks to the American Bar Association.

It designed and supports a Standing Committee on Education "Against Communism."

This carefully planned cooperative project conducts programs to train high school, college and university teachers to give adequate instruction on the contrast between Communism and liberty under law.

It exposes Communist tactics, strategy and objectives here and abroad. It points out that the arguments and differences between Moscow and Peking are basically concerned with the problem: Which is the best way to bury the free world and erect a Red world?

The Standing Committee supports such sobering studies as Dr. Richard V. Allen's "Peaceful Coexistence: A Communist Blueprint for Victory." This is based on a certified examination, "right from the horse's mouth," so to speak, of about 11,000 pages of current Red literature. It also deals with the odd-ball cults among our youth.

It makes starkly clear why the Communists push for "coalitions." It shows that this, along with "peaceful coexistence" as defined by the Communists, is their established take-over strategy.

The American Bar Association effort is a long-term effort. But it seems to me several developments give it great urgency.

President Johnson's Aug. 5, 1964, statement regarding Viet Nam — "Aggression unleashed" — worried the Communist parties of the world because he backed it up by retaliation in the Gulf of Tonkin. His action was counteraction. And counteraction is the one thing they fear. The Communist parties of the world went into high gear. We are seeing the fruit of that now.

Their communication belts fed into our "teach-ins" the moral condemnation of anti-Communist governments. They supercharged their push among American opinion makers to preach "coalitions" with the Communists and "peaceful co-troops out of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, which has been Western Europe's first big barricade against Communist invasion, and said France would assume control of all U.S. bases on French soil by 1969.

When De Gaulle set out his views in a letter to Johnson, he got a fast answer: De Gaulle's insistence that foreign bases on French soil should come under French command was striking at the heart of NATO and should be discussed within NATO.

De Gaulle's action could destroy NATO unless the other 14 members united to stand firm. They did so quickly and last Friday answered De Gaulle.

They said NATO and the organization established under it "are both alike essential to the security of our countries. We are convinced that this organization is essential and will continue."

Johnson would never have acted like that. And it's doubtful De Gaulle ever would have, either, if he didn't know that even if he left NATO the other members would rush to his defense if France needed them.

Along with Viet Nam, the Red resolutions castigated President Johnson's Santo Domingo intervention. And what has irrefragable Bobby Kennedy's pitch been on this? On returning from his latest Latin-American trip he stated: "No one I spoke to down there thought we had done the right thing." To whom, may I ask, is Bobby talking these days?

Bobby is jockeying for political position. In contrast, the best defense against Communism is to know its methods.

The American Bar Association's effort is dedicated to our national security. It exposes the most important truth of all, namely, that slogans are never a substitute for the facts.

MEETING PLANNED

BOISE (AP) — An Idaho association, Future Homemakers of America state leadership meeting March 27-29 — during National FHA week — is expected to draw nearly 350 delegates here, FHA officials said Tuesday.

Mrs. Janet Latham of Boise, state FHA adviser, said the session will include a business meeting as well as leadership and other workshops.

FIGHT CONTINUES

BOISE (AP) — A 34-year-old carpenter who has successfully fought extradition to Missouri for a murder trial for three years remains free on bail today as the fight continues in the courts.

In the newest round, Charles E. Smith is charging in federal courts that his constitutional rights were violated during the three-year fight in state courts for a writ of habeas corpus and freedom.

U. S. District Court Judge Ray McNichols ruled Tuesday Smith's rights had not been violated. Smith's attorney, Allen R. Derr of Boise, immediately filed notice of appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco.

IDAHO FEATURED

BOISE (AP) — Idaho vacation spots will be featured in the June issue of Gate City Steel Corp.'s employee magazine, Louise Shadduck, director of the Idaho Commerce and Development Department, said Tuesday.

Miss Shadduck said the magazine will be received by corporation employees in Louisiana and Nebraska as well as Idaho.

Fiddlers to Hold Contest At Gooding

GOODING — Fourth annual Idaho State Oldtime Fiddlers contest is slated for Saturday in Gooding, according to Charles E. Sams, chairman.

This event, which has grown greatly in popularity since its beginning four years ago, is sponsored by the Merchant's bureau, and will be held in the junior high school gymnasium.

The preliminary contest will start at 2 p.m., and 10 fiddlers from this group will be selected as finalists to compete in the championship contest to start at 8 p.m.

Three of these 10 fiddlers will then compete against each other, playing three series of different tunes.

Rev. Jack Anderson will act as master of ceremonies.

Judges are from the Idaho Oldtime Fiddlers Association and are picked by members of the executive committee.

There are about 160 members of the Oldtime Fiddlers Association and about 40 of these have entered the contest so far, with several more expected to enter, Sams said.

The evening program also will feature several special numbers by association members. An extra feature will be "Blue Grass music" played by a banjo, bass viol, guitar and violin. Members of this quartet have performed around the country, and should prove very popular here.

Sams pointed out that proceeds from the fiddlers' contests have been used for projects within the city. Purchase of additional Christmas decorations is the main objective now. Last year quite a lot of decorations were purchased and used during the Christmas season, and present plans call for additional decoration purchases.

Lloyd Wanzler, Caldwell, champion fiddler and last year's winner, will appear at the contest this year.

APPROVE BOND ISSUE

RIRIE (AP) — Voters in School District 252 in Bonneville and Jefferson counties approved 236-38 a $239,000 school bond issue.

The percentage of approval was 88.9 per cent, exactly the same proportion of approval of another bond issue the same day in Idaho Falls.

REFERENDUM OK'D

COUNCIL, Idaho (AP) — A referendum for creation of a soil and water conservation district in Adams County was approved by voters here 49-16 Tuesday in an election conducted by the state soil conservation commission.

Doyle Scott, the commission's administrative officer, said the new district will encompass all of Adams County except the towns of Council and New Meadows.

LOW BIDDERS

BOISE (AP) — Apparent low bidders for two projects were announced by Idaho's highway department Tuesday.

J. F. Koenig Construction Co., Inc., of Lewiston offered to stockpile road surfacing materials adjacent to Idaho 62 near Winona in Idaho County for $21,810. One other bid was opened.

Max J. Kunej of Spokane was the apparent low bidder to furnish sanding stockpiles adjacent to U. S. 10 in the vicinity of Mullan and Osburn in Shoshone County for $37,625.

LOSE JOBS

POTLATCH, Idaho (AP) — An economy move by the city council Monday night has resulted in the loss of this city's police chief, superintendent of maintenance, police judge, police commissioner and police car.

And the city council has one less member.

Police chief James Hayter and maintenance superintendent Lee Frost lost their jobs Monday night, when the council meeting in the absence of mayor Russell Bailey voted to abolish the two offices and attempt to consolidate the jobs.

Councilman Ellic Bunney, also the police commissioner of this city of 1,200, has resigned as a result of the council's action. So has police judge N. P. McKellips.

FLIGHTS ANNOUNCED

BOISE (AP) — Commercial air service between Coeur d'Alene and Idaho Falls — Idaho's first north-east air link — will begin April 24, Gov. Robert E. Smylie has announced.

Smylie said the daily prop-jet flights by West Coast Airlines are one of several schedule improvements that will give the state a new air service arrangement.

A third Boise-Idaho Falls daily flight will be added, Smylie said, and prop-jet schedules between Boise, Twin Falls and Salt Lake City are being readjusted.

VOTE FOR BOND

IDAHO FALLS (AP) — Idaho Falls voters approved 6,890 to 862 Tuesday a $2.3 million bond issue for construction of a new high school.

The percentage for approval was 88.9 per cent, well above the two-thirds approval required for passage. A west side location was approved 4,583 to 3,377 in a companion vote.

A bond issue for construction of the school failed last September, with only 54 per cent approval.

Different voter qualifications accounted for the different vote totals in the Tuesday elections on the bonds and the site preference, an election official said.

Fun Night Planned by Valley PTA

EDEN - HAZELTON — Annual Fun Night, sponsored by the Valley PTA, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Valley High School.

Featured events will be the basketball games between the high school girls' team and the community mothers and the Valley Vikings and the community fathers.

Although both games should prove to be exciting, the latter game has the added incentive of the fathers getting "tromped" in last year's game and they reportedly are determined to even the score.

Tickets will be on sale at the door with proceeds going towards the purchase of a new stage curtain at the Valley school.

A refreshment stand will be open in the lunch room throughout the evening. Everyone is invited.

U.S. War Problems Similar to Those of France

PARIS (AP) — United States difficulties in locating and coming to grips with the enemy in Viet Nam were part of an old and sad story in France.

French forces faced the same problems during most of their long war in Indochina before they finally gave up in despair.

The French fight in Indochina ended July 20, 1954, when the Geneva agreements partitioning Viet Nam at the 17th Parallel were signed.

By May 1953, the French forces numbered about 450,000 men in land, sea and air units. Some 225,000 of this total were Indochinese troops.

Against them were some 400,000 Viet Minh fighters — regulars, regional militia and guerrillas. During the last year of the fighting, the Viet Minh forces were expanded and made more effective by an improved supply system and modern weapons.

The Viet Minh started with practically nothing in the confused days when the Japanese empire was collapsing at the end of World War II.

At the Potsdam meeting in July 1945 President Truman, Prime Minister Attlee, and Premier Stalin agreed that Nationalist Chinese troops would occupy Indochina north of the 16th Parallel, and British troops south of that line, when Japan was defeated.

Administration was to be turned back to France when the French were in position to take control. But when the new French commissioner arrived in Hanoi Aug. 22, 1945, to take over, a Viet Minh administration under Ho Chi Minh was in charge.

Bao Dai, emperor of Annam, had asked Charles de Gaulle, then premier of France, for independence in the summer of 1945. But later Bao Dai asked the Viet Minh to form a government and then abdicated. Bao Dai became "supreme counselor" to Ho.

In March 1946, France recognized Ho's government, which would have its own parliament, government and army, but remain in the French Union. Four months of futile negotiations followed, however, on a special status for the southern province of Cochinchina. Relations steadily deteriorated and the French took over public buildings in Hanoi in October 1946.

In November 1946, the situation was so bad that French planes bombed Haiphong, Hanoi's port, and in December the Viet Minh rose in rebellion in Hanoi.

A power station was blown up and a hospital raided. Open warfare began between the French and Viet Minh.

During 1947, 1948 and 1949, the Viet Minh was loosely organized and presented no military threat. Viet Minh activities were limited to guerrilla attacks.

The French government was trying to find some formula for giving Viet Nam limited independence. In June 1948, an agreement for independence was signed and Bao Dai, who had broken with Ho and gone into exile in Hong Kong, was installed as chief of state.

But there was never any government stability; the government commanded no real loyalty from the people.

Communist Chinese troops reached the Indochinese border in December 1949 after routing Nationalist forces, and were able to move materiel across the border to Ho. Training camps were set up for the Viet Minh.

By March 1953, when Gen. Henri Navarre arrived to take command of French forces, instructions from Paris were to seek an honorable way for ending the fighting.

By that time, the Viet Minh forces were organized into big units and were well equipped.

The final blow for France came at Dien Bien Phu. A fortified camp in a valley was set up there to bar the road to northern Laos. Dien Bien Phu was thought to be safe because the Viet Minh had never used artillery big enough to reach the camp from the surrounding hills.

But during the battle —

March 13 through May 7, 1954 — Viet Minh heavy artillery came into action for the first time.

When Dien Bien Phu fell, with a loss of 12,000 men — wounded, dead or prisoners — the French military capability in North Viet Nam was shattered.

When the Geneva agreements were signed in 1954, calling for partition of the country, France still held the main cities — Hanoi, Haiphong and Saigon. But there was no assurance how long they could hold.

French losses in 7½ years of the worst of fighting were 92,000 dead.

"CHARGE IT"

GENERAL MOTORS PRESIDENT James M. Roche, left, appearing before the Senate Government Operations Subcommittee in Washington Tuesday, apologized twice to the members of the subcommittee and Ralph Nader, right, whose private life was investigated by a detective agency hired by GM. Nader is author of a book on auto safety which was critical of GM's Corvair models produced 1960-63. Nader complained he was subjected to harassment. (AP wirephoto)

Nader Gets Apology From GM President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff listened to the private detective spin a Keystone Cops yarn and then looked with some sympathy toward the president of General Motors.

"I can imagine Mr. Roche is wondering why General Motors spent $6,700," said Ribicoff, chairman of the Senate Government Operations Subcommittee.

For the $6,700 General Motors bought an investigation of Ralph Nader, young attorney and critic of auto safety, particularly of GM's Corvair—and put GM President James M. Roche in the position of apologizing twice to Nader and Ribicoff's subcommittee.

Roche apologized once before private investigator Vincent Gillen testified and then did it again after Gillen, hired by GM to carry out the investigation, had his say and crossed swords with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

The aim of the investigation, Roche said, was to gather information about Nader's background as an attorney and expert on safety and to learn whether he had any connection with some hundred lawsuits involving about $40 million in damage claims relating to the design of 1960 through 1963 Corvairs.

But before the investigation came to a halt Nader's personal life, his high school and college grades, his eating habits and sex life all came under the scrutiny of Gillen's private eyes in interviews with Nader's friends and associates and in a period of direct surveillance of him.

"To the extent that General Motors bears responsibility, I want to apologize here and now to the members of this subcommittee and Mr. Nader," said Roche.

Ordainment of Women in Catholic Church Foreseen

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — A world-renowned Roman Catholic theologian today foresaw the ordination of women in the Church.

The Rev. Bernard Haring of Germany said he believed it feasible "to ordain women as deaconesses."

After that the question could be raised whether they "can be called to the priesthood," he said. "I would not say yes, but I would not close the door to it."

The diaconate is a level of holy orders prior to the full priesthood that involves ordination.

The subject, which touched off a lively exchange, arose Tuesday at an international conference at the University of Notre Dame on the long-range ramifications of Rome's historic Vatican Council II.

Sister Mary Ann Ida, president of Mundelein College at Chicago, interjected it was a great comfort that "at long last the Church is turning to consideration of the role of women in the Church."

Beacons May Facilitate Marking Seas

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A nuclear scientist says expanded undersea exploration may be facilitated in the next 10 years by atomic beacons marking the oceans of the world.

Dr. B.I. Spinard of the Argonne National Laboratory told a meeting of the American Nuclear Society Tuesday night that nuclear-powered submarine freighters may ply undersea lanes marked with sonar beacons.

Spinard said the beacons, using atomic energy, would identify submarine travel lanes.

He said increased attention also is being given to space uses for nuclear power systems which "look extremely fruitful because of their reliability."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

Past barriers to them, she added, have been based on sociological and historical factors, rather than religious grounds.

Some Protestant churches, including Presbyterian, Methodist and the United Church of Christ, permit ordination of women, but relatively few are in that office. They are barred from it in most major churches, Protestant, Eastern Orthodox and Roman Catholic.

Leading scholars of the various denominations are taking part in the meeting here.

Father Haring, one of Rome's most influential moral theologians, and now a visiting professor at Brown University, said there were deaconesses in early Christianity, and advocated that the office be restored.

"At present, I would advise them not to make claims on the episcopacy (the position of bishop or the papacy)," and added he feels they could meet the demands of holy orders as well or "better than men."

Not only does Mrs. Anderson find time to maintain an orderly, attractive home, but also helps in her husband's business, Nu-Life Carpet and Upholstery Cleaners.

She also sponsors a Camp Fire group, teaches a Sunday School and a primary class and is active in the PTA.

The attractive brunette housewife was raised in Twin Falls and attended schools here. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Crist, live in Hagerman.

Lodge Harvest Festival Is Slated for Fall

Members of Primrose Rebekah Lodge No. 76 voted to host a harvest festival this fall when they met at the IOOF Hall.

Committees will be appointed and the date set at a later meeting. Members reported 22 calls made on sick and shut-in members and 23 cards sent.

Mrs. George Benham, lodge deputy, read her official duties in open lodge and requested all officers to read theirs.

Carl Ridgeway reported that the lodges of District No. 5 voted to sponsor a joint fund raising project. Funds from this project will be used to purchase a commercial washer for the Odd Fellows Home, Caldwell. He requested that Primrose Rebekah Lodge appoint a committee to assist in the planning.

Widener, noble grand, appointed Mrs. Frank Eastman, Mrs. Ridgeway and Mrs. Harold Kennedy to serve on the planning committee.

The 54 new chairs purchased by the lodge were in the hall placed on a new platform constructed by the Odd Fellows.

Mrs. Jake Roth, program chairman, honored St. Patrick with an un-rehearsed audience participation program. She asked all members to sing a bit of Erin in their veins to make themselves known. She then led this group in jokes, song and dance numbers that were as much of a surprise to the audience.

The lodge will feature a potluck dinner April 5 in honor of Mrs. George Benham, lodge deputy, who will make her official visit to the lodge at that time.

Visitors were Mrs. Leo Pursley, Jerome; Mrs. I. H. Wood, Jerome; Mrs. W. M. McDaniel, Eden; Mrs. Leslie Dean, Eden, and Mrs. Clelia King, Burley. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert McCracken, Mrs. Lillian Harmon, Wanda Widener and Mrs. Vanessa Johnson.

U. S. Climber Killed in Fall On Mt. Eiger

KLEINE SCHEIDEGG, Switzerland (AP) — A fair-haired American plunged 3,000 feet to his death Tuesday, the 26th victim of the passion that sent generations of alpinists against the towering Mt. Eiger north wall.

John Harlin, 30, of Los Altos, Calif., an ex-fighter pilot, died smashed against the ice-covered rock he was scaling at the head of a five-man British-American team.

Eiger in the Swiss Alps. (AP

His death threw a spell of bad omen over his teammates and the eight German climbers who vowed to conquer the summit through the treacherous direct ascent route.

Two days ago, the Germans and Anglo-Americans joined forces for a determined assault on the 14,046-foot mountain. Harlin himself joined the team Monday after a brief rest, telling his friends: "This is it. All the way to the top."

Tuesday afternoon, as brilliant sun glittered on the surrounding Alpine peaks, Harlin was a red-clad puppet hurtling down, his arms spread in a pathetic gesture.

One knew whether the expedition will continue.

To Harlin, this climb was to climax his career of alpinist, adventurer and world traveler. "Climbing is a sophistication of exploration," he said a few days ago. "This one is the biggest Alpine climb every conceived."

Harlin was trying to join an advance team of eight West Germans and a Briton waiting in the bivouac on "The Spider," a dreaded ice field less than 3,000 feet from the summit.

"I was watching in brilliant sunshine from the Kleine Scheidegg Hotel roof," said an Austrian newspaperman. "I had just focused the telescope on Harlin, a solitary figure in red climbing clothes, and a heavy blue knapsack on his back."

"Suddenly, I saw the tiny figure throw up his arms as though in despair. A split second later he sailed through the air. It seemed a horrible eternity before the body landed 3,000 feet below at the very foot of the north wall."

The British-American team of five and the West German team of eight started the ascent as rivals March 2. They agreed to join forces Sunday after storms and snow had hindered progress.

Harlin was at a height of about 11,500 feet when he appeared to lose his foothold. He was climbing by one of the fixed ropes on the face, fitted by the advance parties. There were unconfirmed reports that he was changing ropes when he slipped.

Long Trip

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—A December issue of the Joplin Globe addressed to Thomas-ton, Ga., missed a train somewhere and arrived in the state of Georgia in Turkey.

Two and a half months later in Thomaston, L. S. Baney got his paper—with a Turkish postmark and written instructions for routing it back to the United States.

Navy Band to Play April 27 In 2 Towns

BURLEY—The World Famous United States Navy Band, conducted by Lt. Cmdr. Anthony A. Mitchell, will present concerts at 1:30 p.m. in the Minico High School and at 8:15 p.m. in the Burley High School Gymnasium April 27, sponsored by the Burley-Rupert Shriners Club.

The band is making a coast to coast tour from Washington, D. C. The tour will be for a limited number of concert appearances.

All concert tours of the United States Navy Band are entirely self-sustaining. The tours have the personal approval of the President of the United States. When on concert tour, at no expense to the government, the band is presented in personal appearances by civic, charitable, school organizations, similar groups, with all monies made, above expenses, designated to local civic, charitable or public approved projects.

Gib Sandefer, who has directed the national tours of the Band for the past 18 years, has completed arrangements with the local Burley-Rupert Shriners Club for the band's appearance.

The last concert tour to the West Coast was made during the spring of 1964.

The tour was for 56 personal appearances, through 18 states. The 1965 Spring Concert tour was a tour of 48 dates, and the band played concerts in New Jersey, Connecticut, New York, Maine, Vermont, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin.

Burley Census Is Certified

BOISE (AP) — The population of Burley, was 8,262 as of Feb. 15, 1966, secretary of State Arnold Williams has been informed.

Certification of the results of a special census in Burley by the U. S. Bureau of Census was sent to Williams by Bureau Director A. Ross Eckler.

Eckler said the census showed 8,225 Burley residents were Caucasian and 37 were not — and that there were 4,043 men to 4,219 women.

Missing Bomb Will Be Dissected Like Fish

WASHINGTON (AP) — The missing American hydrogen bomb will be dissected like a fish if the United States ever reels it up from the bottom of the sea off Spain.

Officials said today that once the bomb is recovered it will be dismantled and subjected to months — and some parts for years — of study.

This is to find out in all detail possible how the thermonuclear device was affected by an in-flight collision and months in the salt water of the Mediterranean.

Troop Wins

The bomb was loosed when a U.S. B52 jet and its refueling tanker collided six miles above the coast of Spain Jan. 17. It drifted by parachute into the sea.

Miniature submarines have been trying to maneuver the bomb into a favorable position for recovery the past several days. Officials say it might be days or weeks before the bomb is surfaced.

Once in hand, the gray, tubular device will be taken to an unspecified base of the Defense Atomic Support Agency (DASA).

officials said. DASA builds the nation's nuclear hardware.

"You can rest assured it will get a thorough going-over," one spokesman said. "We bring nuclear bombs back to the shop if they're so much as scratched."

Dozens of experts will be called in for various examinations of the bomb's components. They have probed the intricacies of a few other nuclear weapons which were damaged in plane crashes or merely dented in transporting.

Getting into the bomb isn't a particularly complicated or ticklish matter. Its insides are bared by removal of bolted-on plates.

The scientists and technicians will be interested primarily in two things about the bomb: its safety features and structure.

Probably none of the weapon's parts will be used in another H-bomb.

Officials say that after all the poking and probing is through, the components probably will become little more than conversation pieces in scattered research labs.

Car Forced From Street, Two Injured

Eric R. Holm was hospitalized at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital Tuesday morning after his vehicle was run from the street at 12:45 a.m. Tuesday by an unidentified vehicle.

Holm, 21, 702 Third Ave. W., told police he was driving along Shoshone Street early when a green 1955 Chevrolet began following him. Holm said he was trying to get to the Depot Grill for something to eat and the vehicle following would not allow him to enter the left traffic lane.

He said he then turned right onto Sixth Avenue West and it was then the driver of the Chevrolet forced his car off the road. According to police, once Holm's vehicle left the road it went onto the tracks by Langdon's Wrecking yard and Holm and his passenger, K. Craig Fisher, 21, bashed their heads on the windshield. The bump knocked Fisher unconscious.

Both men were taken to the hospital. Fisher was treated for head injuries and released, and Holm was admitted. A hospital spokesman said Tuesday afternoon that Holm is listed in good condition.

Police Chief Frank Barnett said it is hard to apprehend anyone with such a vague description of the vehicle, but investigation will continue.

ADVOCATES AIR POWER
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Intensified use of air power should be used in Viet Nam to end the war, says an executive of the Air Force Association, James Straubel. He said his group favors a policy to "get this thing over, and the war decisively and not fall behind in our technology at home."

RECEIVING $100 SAVINGS BOND from Mrs. Percy Greene, president of the Twin Falls Soroptimist Club, is Steven Klomp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Klomp, Twin Falls. His essay and application have been entered in the regional contest. (Times-News photo)

Steven Klomp Is Picked by Soroptimists for Award

A Twin Falls High School senior has been chosen as the Soroptimist Foundation's Youth Citizenship Award candidate by the Twin Falls Soroptimist Club.

The youth, Steven Klomp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Klomp, 1341 Granada Circle, was named at a dinner meeting of the club Tuesday in the Colonial Room of the Rogerson Coffee Shop.

Klomp's application, with a 250-word essay on "My Responsibility as a Citizen — in the Family, in the Community and in the World," was chosen above several other applications from the high school. Among items included in each application and considered by the judges were student activities, earned awards, chosen field of interest and aims and purposes in life.

Klomp was presented with a

$100 Savings Bond and his application has been submitted to the Rocky Mountain Region of Soroptimist Clubs for competition in the regional contest.

The winner of the regional contest will compete with winners of 12 other regions for a cash award of $2,500, which is paid in a lump sum to the student.

The award is not a scholarship, but an "award of merit," and may be used at the discretion of the student in any way he may decide will best further his aims and purposes in life.

This is the first year the contest has been held on the local level and the sixth year the national contest has been held.

May Move

NEWTON, Ga. (AP) — Baker County officials are considering moving this entire flood-weary city a quarter mile to higher ground.

Two weeks ago, the business section of the community of 529 was swamped with five feet of Flint River water, and damage was estimated at $150,000.

Public Land To Be Sold In Minidoka

BOISE — A tract of public land in Minidoka County will go on sale at public auction April 12 at the Federal Building in Boise, it was announced today by Orval G. Hadley, land office manager for the Bureau of Land Management.

Located about 10 miles northwesterly from Minidoka, the tract totals 40 acres. The land is undulating with shallow, natural drainages and a scattering of float rock. The soils are mainly a sandy, silt loam. Plant cover is cheat grass and forbs.

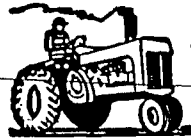

The land has fair suitability for farming, provided water is obtained for irrigation, according to Hadley. Improved county roads on the south and east boundaries provide good access.

The appraised value is $2,000. The tract will not be sold for less than this amount. If not sold on the first scheduled date, the land will be offered each Wednesday until sold or until the sale is canceled.

Bids may be mailed or made orally at the sale. Each bidder must furnish a $53 deposit to defray publication costs. Adjoining landowners may exercise purchasing preference by meeting the high bid within 30 days.

Further information may be obtained at the Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, P.O. Box 2237, Boise, Idaho, 83701.

Reactions Given for Final Site Choices

NEW YORK (AP) — Selection as one of six possible sites for a proposed $375-million atom smasher should be a Chamber of Commerce dream come true.

And it is for all but one of the finalists, South Barrington, Ill., near Chicago, where the people wish the federal facility would go somewhere else.

Arthur Hogfelt, the village president, said: "We moved out for privacy and fresh air and that's about it. We don't want to move. You might say they're purely selfish reasons — but what else is there?"

The other finalists, including Weston, Ill., an alternate to South Barrington, are actively seeking the atom smasher. "It's the scientific plum of the century," said Arthur Theriault, president of Weston Village, which is 15 miles away from South Barrington.

A site selection committee of the National Academy of Sciences recommended six spots in six states Tuesday as possible locations for the 200-billion-electron-volt — BEV — accelerator designed to probe nature's innermost secrets.

In alphabetical order, they are: Ann Arbor, Mich.; Brookhaven National Laboratory at Upton, Long Island, N.Y.; Denver, Colo.; Madison, Wis.; the Sierra foothills 20 miles east of Sacramento, Calif.; and South Barrington (or Weston), Ill.

Congress has not approved construction of the atom smasher, but if and when it does, it will be the world's largest and it will be the costliest single scientific installation ever built.

A hundred communities had sought the facility, which would cost $60 million a year to run and would bring in 2,400 resident scientists. The lobbying for selection was almost unprecedented.

The final selection will be up to the Atomic Energy Commission.

At least two state legislatures are ready to meet to enhance their state's effort to get the facility. The Wisconsin Legislature, which meets in May, is reported ready to adopt what the University of Michigan, said ever legislation may be necessary. It already has pledged up to $10 million in state funds to make any site improvements required by the AEC.

Gene Graves, director of the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development, said in Springfield that Gov. Otto Kerner will call a special session of the legislature if one of the Illinois sites is selected so that money can be appropriated to buy land to donate.

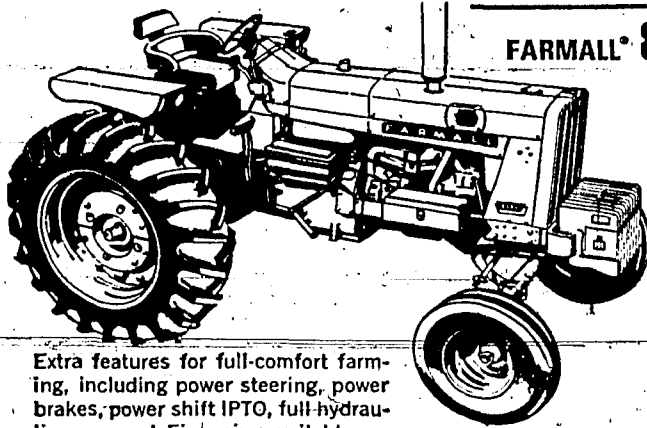

Harlan Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, said he was "very pleased" that Ann Arbor was among the finalists. The presence of the accelerator, he said, would be "highly significant to education, science and research."

Ann Arbor Mayor Wendell Hulcher said he saw it as a mixed blessing that would bring a great economic influx to the community — and problems. "Some of our folks have not been particularly anxious to have it," he said, "but on the other hand it also has broad general support."

MOLYNEUX MACHINERY CO.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market eased on profit taking early this afternoon as trading slackened.

After five straight sessions of advance the Street grew cautious. Traders took some gains on the move-up which began at the lows of Tuesday, March 15.

Some analysts said it was likely the market would have to approach and "test" those lows before organizing another rally into possibly higher ground.

Aerospace stocks, electronics, chemicals, autos, airlines and office equipments were among the losers.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 1.0 at 345.7 with industrials off 2.2, rails off .1 and utilities unchanged.

Contributing to the weakness in the averages, duPont lost 2. General Motors, General Electric, New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroad a point or more, Chrysler, Kennecott and Allied Chemical fractions.

Losses of 2 points were shown by Boeing and IBM. Zenith, Polaroid, Xerox, United Air Lines and American Airlines were 1-point losers.

Traders showed keen interest in some of the low-priced issues. Benguet, the Philippine mining issue, looked like a pinch-most active stock. It was bought in one big block after another. After holding at 13 1/2 for most of the morning, it finally nudged up to 2 and then to 2 1/2.

Brokers could not pinpoint the reason for its activity but its strength was shared to some extent by other gold miners, Campbell Red Lake, up 1 and American South African investment, up nearly 2.

Lionel also was very heavily traded, although not in the same league for volume as Benguet. Lionel, which has been spurred by rumors from time to time, a new peak for the year.

A.J. Industries, another low-priced issue which has been a trading favorite lately, gained a substantial fraction in active dealings.

Northwest Airlines lost about 2. The Dow Jones Industrial average at noon was off 4.63 at 929.89.

Prices declined in active trading on the American Stock Exchange. Syntex and National Video lost about 3 points, Conduccion 2, Gulf Sulphur and Northeast Airlines about 1 each.

9. Solitron Devices gained 2. Valley Metallurgical, Hall Lamp and Berkeley Photo 1 each and Goldfield a fraction.

Corporate bonds showed little change. U.S. Treasury bonds were mixed.

Dow-Jones Averages
30 Indus. 928.61, off 5.91.

Grain

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean futures scored fairly sharp price gains while grain futures prices were mostly fractionally changed.

Chief early strength behind soybeans was the prospect for new soybean oil exports to the United Arab Republic with other sales to follow. Soybeans opened higher and the gains were extended as the session progressed.

Light government selling and improved export demand helped corn prices.

Estimated carlot receipts were wheat none, corn 73, oats 5, rye none, barley 28 and soybeans none.

Faux Topples T.F. Team 70-44, Becomes Favorite In Magic Valley Tourney

FILER—Faux Cigar Store, Buhl, became the favorite in the Magic Valley Outlaw Basketball Tournament in its opening session Tuesday night by knocking off highly-regarded Valley Nursing Home, Twin Falls, 70-44. Faux, which had fallen twice to Valley Nursing in previous meetings this year, broke the game wide open in the second half by neutralizing Valley's height advantage with a zone and getting

Laver Stops Rally, Gains Advancement

NEW YORK (AP)—Top-seeded Rod Laver of Australia was forced to rally in the first round to defeat Mike Davies of Great Britain 4-6, 6-3, 6-1 and reach the quarter-finals of the Madison Square Garden $25,000 Invitation Pro Tennis Tournament Tuesday.

Laver, playing erratically, lost a 3-1 lead in the first set and then steadied to stroke out of a 2-all tie in the second set and gain command of the match.

Fourth-seeded Andres Gimeno of Spain, Pierre Barthes of France and Lew Hoad of Australia also were winners on the opening program of matches.

Gimeno also was forced to come from behind before subduing Pancho Segura, the 44-year-old Ecuadorian, 3-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Barthes, the newest of the pro tennis clique, downed Luis Ayala of Chile 6-3, 2-6, 6-4.

Hoad, making a comeback after being inactive last season, defeated Alex Olmedo of Peru 6-3, 8-6.

The tournament resumes Thursday with the quarter-final round. Laver will face Earl Buchholz of St. Louis; Gimeno will play Mal Anderson of Australia; Barthes will meet second-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia, and Hoad will take on his old rival, Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles, seeded third.

Eight Added To Football Hall of Fame

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Buildgood Turner, George McAfee and Bill Dudley are among eight celebrated figures voted into the National Professional Football Hall of Fame, it was announced Tuesday.

Steve Owen, Joe Guyon, Arnie Horner, Walt Kiesling and Hugh (Shorty) Ray also were selected for the honor by a panel of 14 sports writers and broadcasters. They will be enshrined at special ceremonies tentatively scheduled for Aug. 27, joining 31 others previously voted into the Hall.

Turner was a center and McAfee, a halfback for the Chicago Bears, hitting the peak of their careers in the 1940s, and Dudley played halfback for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Detroit Lions and Washington Redskins in the same era.

Owen was a long-time coach in the National Football League, including a span of 23 years with the New York Giants. Kiesling also was a coach for many years, with several pro teams.

Guyon, an Indian who was a teammate of Jim Thorpe's at Carlisle, played both tackle and halfback as a pro in the 1920s. Horner, the NFL's leading passer for three years, teamed with Don Hutson to give the Green Bay Packers a legendary aerial attack.

Ray spent 12 years as the NFL's technical advisor and supervisor of officials, 1938-56.

Howard Set To Aid Yanks' Comeback

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Elston Howard, the New York Yankees' catcher, sat in the dressing room trying to analyze the club's pitching problems last year—and eventually pointed an accusing finger at himself.

"My absence may have hurt," Howard admitted, although he tried to avoid the issue for fear of sounding immodest. "If a pitcher has a habit of pitching to someone, it means a lot to him that guy back there."

"I've worked with all of them for years and we get along real well, so maybe that did hurt them. It's no reflection on the other catchers but you put a guy in there who calls a different pattern, and he may upset the pitcher."

"But I can straighten my arm all the way out now," Howard continued. "That's what really bothered me when I came back last year. But I feel great and I feel I can catch as many games as Johnny Keane wants me to."

The American League's Most Valuable Player in 1963 and a .313-hitter in 1964, Howard's injury last season was one of the major reasons for the Yankees' slide to sixth place. Injured in an exhibition game when he slipped trying to make a throw to second base, Howard underwent an operation and returned to the team in June.

Sharman Is New Coach For Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Former Boston Celtic star Bill Sharman was hired Tuesday to coach the San Francisco Warriors just hours after the firing of Alex Hannum.

The double surprise came from Franklin E. Mieuli, owner of the National Basketball Association team. He told Hannum Tuesday morning he was through after three seasons. As head coach.

Then Mieuli's office in San Francisco said Tuesday evening that Sharman had been hired. Mieuli was in southern California.

In order to get the job, Sharman agreed to live in the San Francisco area with his wife and four children. Mieuli said the fired Hannum was living in Southern California during the off-season.

Mieuli said he wanted a full time coach to conduct clinics, work with younger players and to make speeches during the off season. Only Los Angeles and Boston now have full time coaches.

Knicks Topple Hawks 126-125

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Van Arsdale's field goal following a missed foul shot with about 1 1/2 minutes left led the New York Knicks to victory over St. Louis 126-125 Tuesday night in a mean-nothing game that closed out the regular National Basketball Association season.

The Hawks went into the game with the final playoff spot in the Western Division sewed up. The Knicks were hopelessly buried in last place in the East.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, March 23 — Don't trust to "luck," rather, make certain that you have all the facts of the matter on hand.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Analyze carefully any opportunity that may present itself, and refuse to become enthused until you can count on the results.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Both business and personal interests should be given your special attention today. To slight either would be to slight both.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Be diplomatic in your handling of other people just now and you should be able to take advantage of a new prospect.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Don't rely on promises—and don't expect your own promises to be relied upon. These are days when it is solid performance that counts.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Make plans carefully where they involve travel. These are not the most auspicious times for Libra to be far from home.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Keep a clear, level head on your shoulders and you should be able to reap the rewards of recent enterprise.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Advance your earning capacity now by making the right decisions. Don't let others talk you out of what you believe to be a "good thing."

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — A traveling job—if only temporary—may prove of great advantage to the Aquarius who is artistically inclined.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — Make sure that any opportunity you accept at this time is sound and practical. Otherwise, you may lose your advantage.

ADENAUER HONORED
MONTIGNY - LES - METZ, France (AP) — Konrad Adenauer, former chancellor of West Germany, has been selected to receive the first Schuman Medal.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21) — Good plans equal good results.

Response

KINGSTON, R. I. (AP) — A Negro psychologist says the federal government's efforts on behalf of Negro equality in the last 10 years is partly in response to world communism.

Dr. Kenneth B. Clark of the City University of New York said at the University of Rhode Island that the government's drive for racial equality was spurred partly by a fear that Negroes would be attracted to communism.

Murtaugh Is Host to Filer Grangers

MURTAUGH — Murtaugh Grange was host to Filer Grange Friday night for a potluck supper and fun night. There were 25 Filer Grangers and four children in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Poe, Twin Falls Grange, and Mr. and Mrs. Frida Brinkman and two children, Murtaugh, were also guests. Mrs. Poe fills the office of Filer in Idaho State Grange.

Filer Grange members presented the exchange program under the direction of Mrs. Rex Lancaster, lecturer. Everyone was invited to remain and play cards and games.

The home economics committee named Mr. and Mrs. James Sargent and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Huffman to serve as hosts for the April meeting.

It was reported that net proceeds from the Ray Stanger farm sale lunch served by Murtaugh Grange were donated equally to cancer, heart, March of Dimes and Red Cross with $40 to each fund.
